

Taking stock of time.

There is a recurring trend of most orders made in November and the least in February, this could be due to seasonality.

In the year 2017 there was a sales increase to $93K, as opposed to $50K in 2014.

The Products.

Product Sales

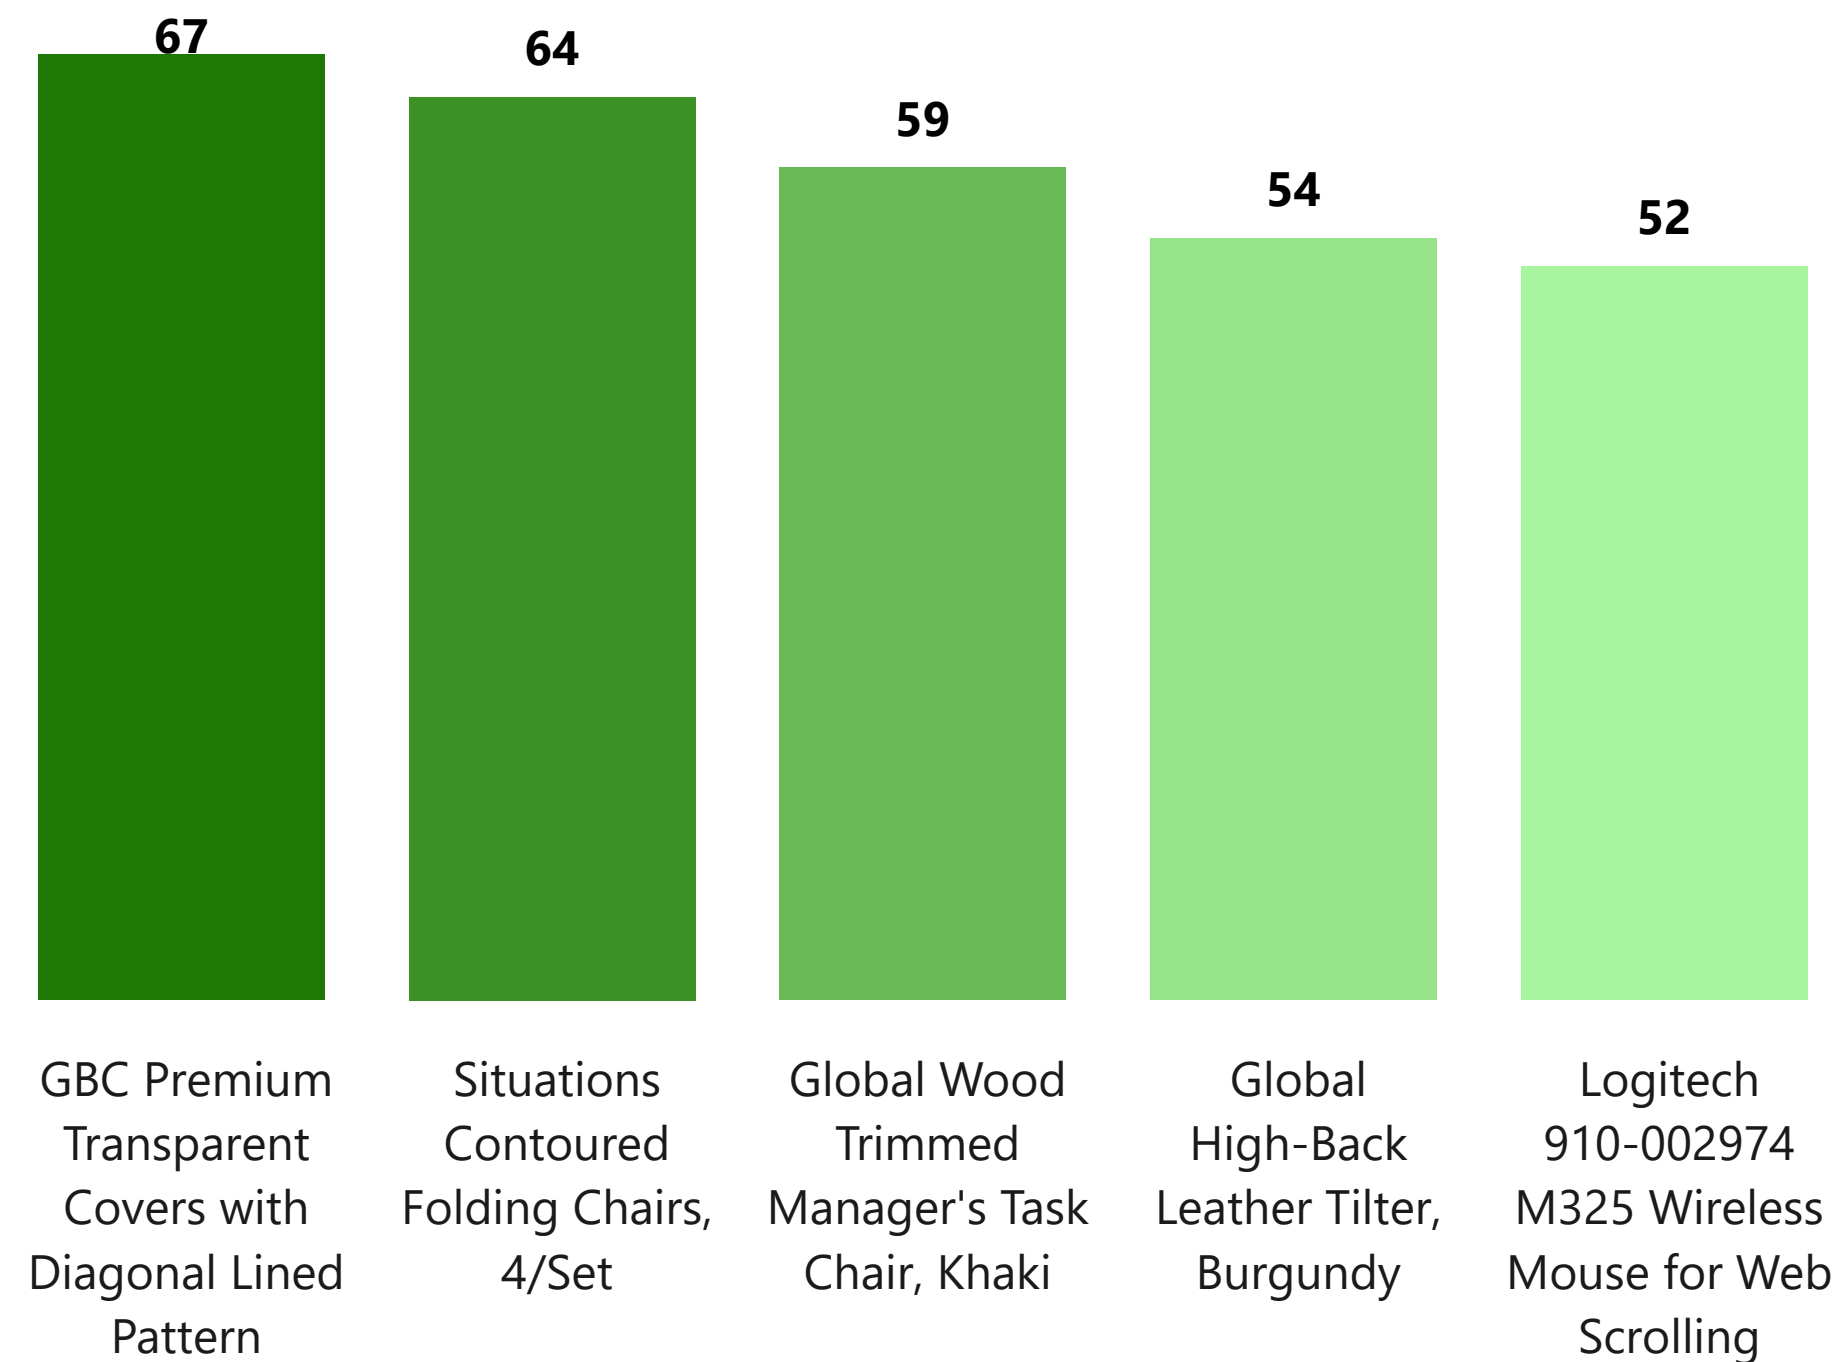

Canon imageCLASS 2200 Advanced Copier made the most profit at $25 K and sold more at $62K. The most ordered product was the GBC Premium Transparent Covers with Diagonal Lined Pattern with 67 units sold.

Product Profit

Product Quantity

Our customers.

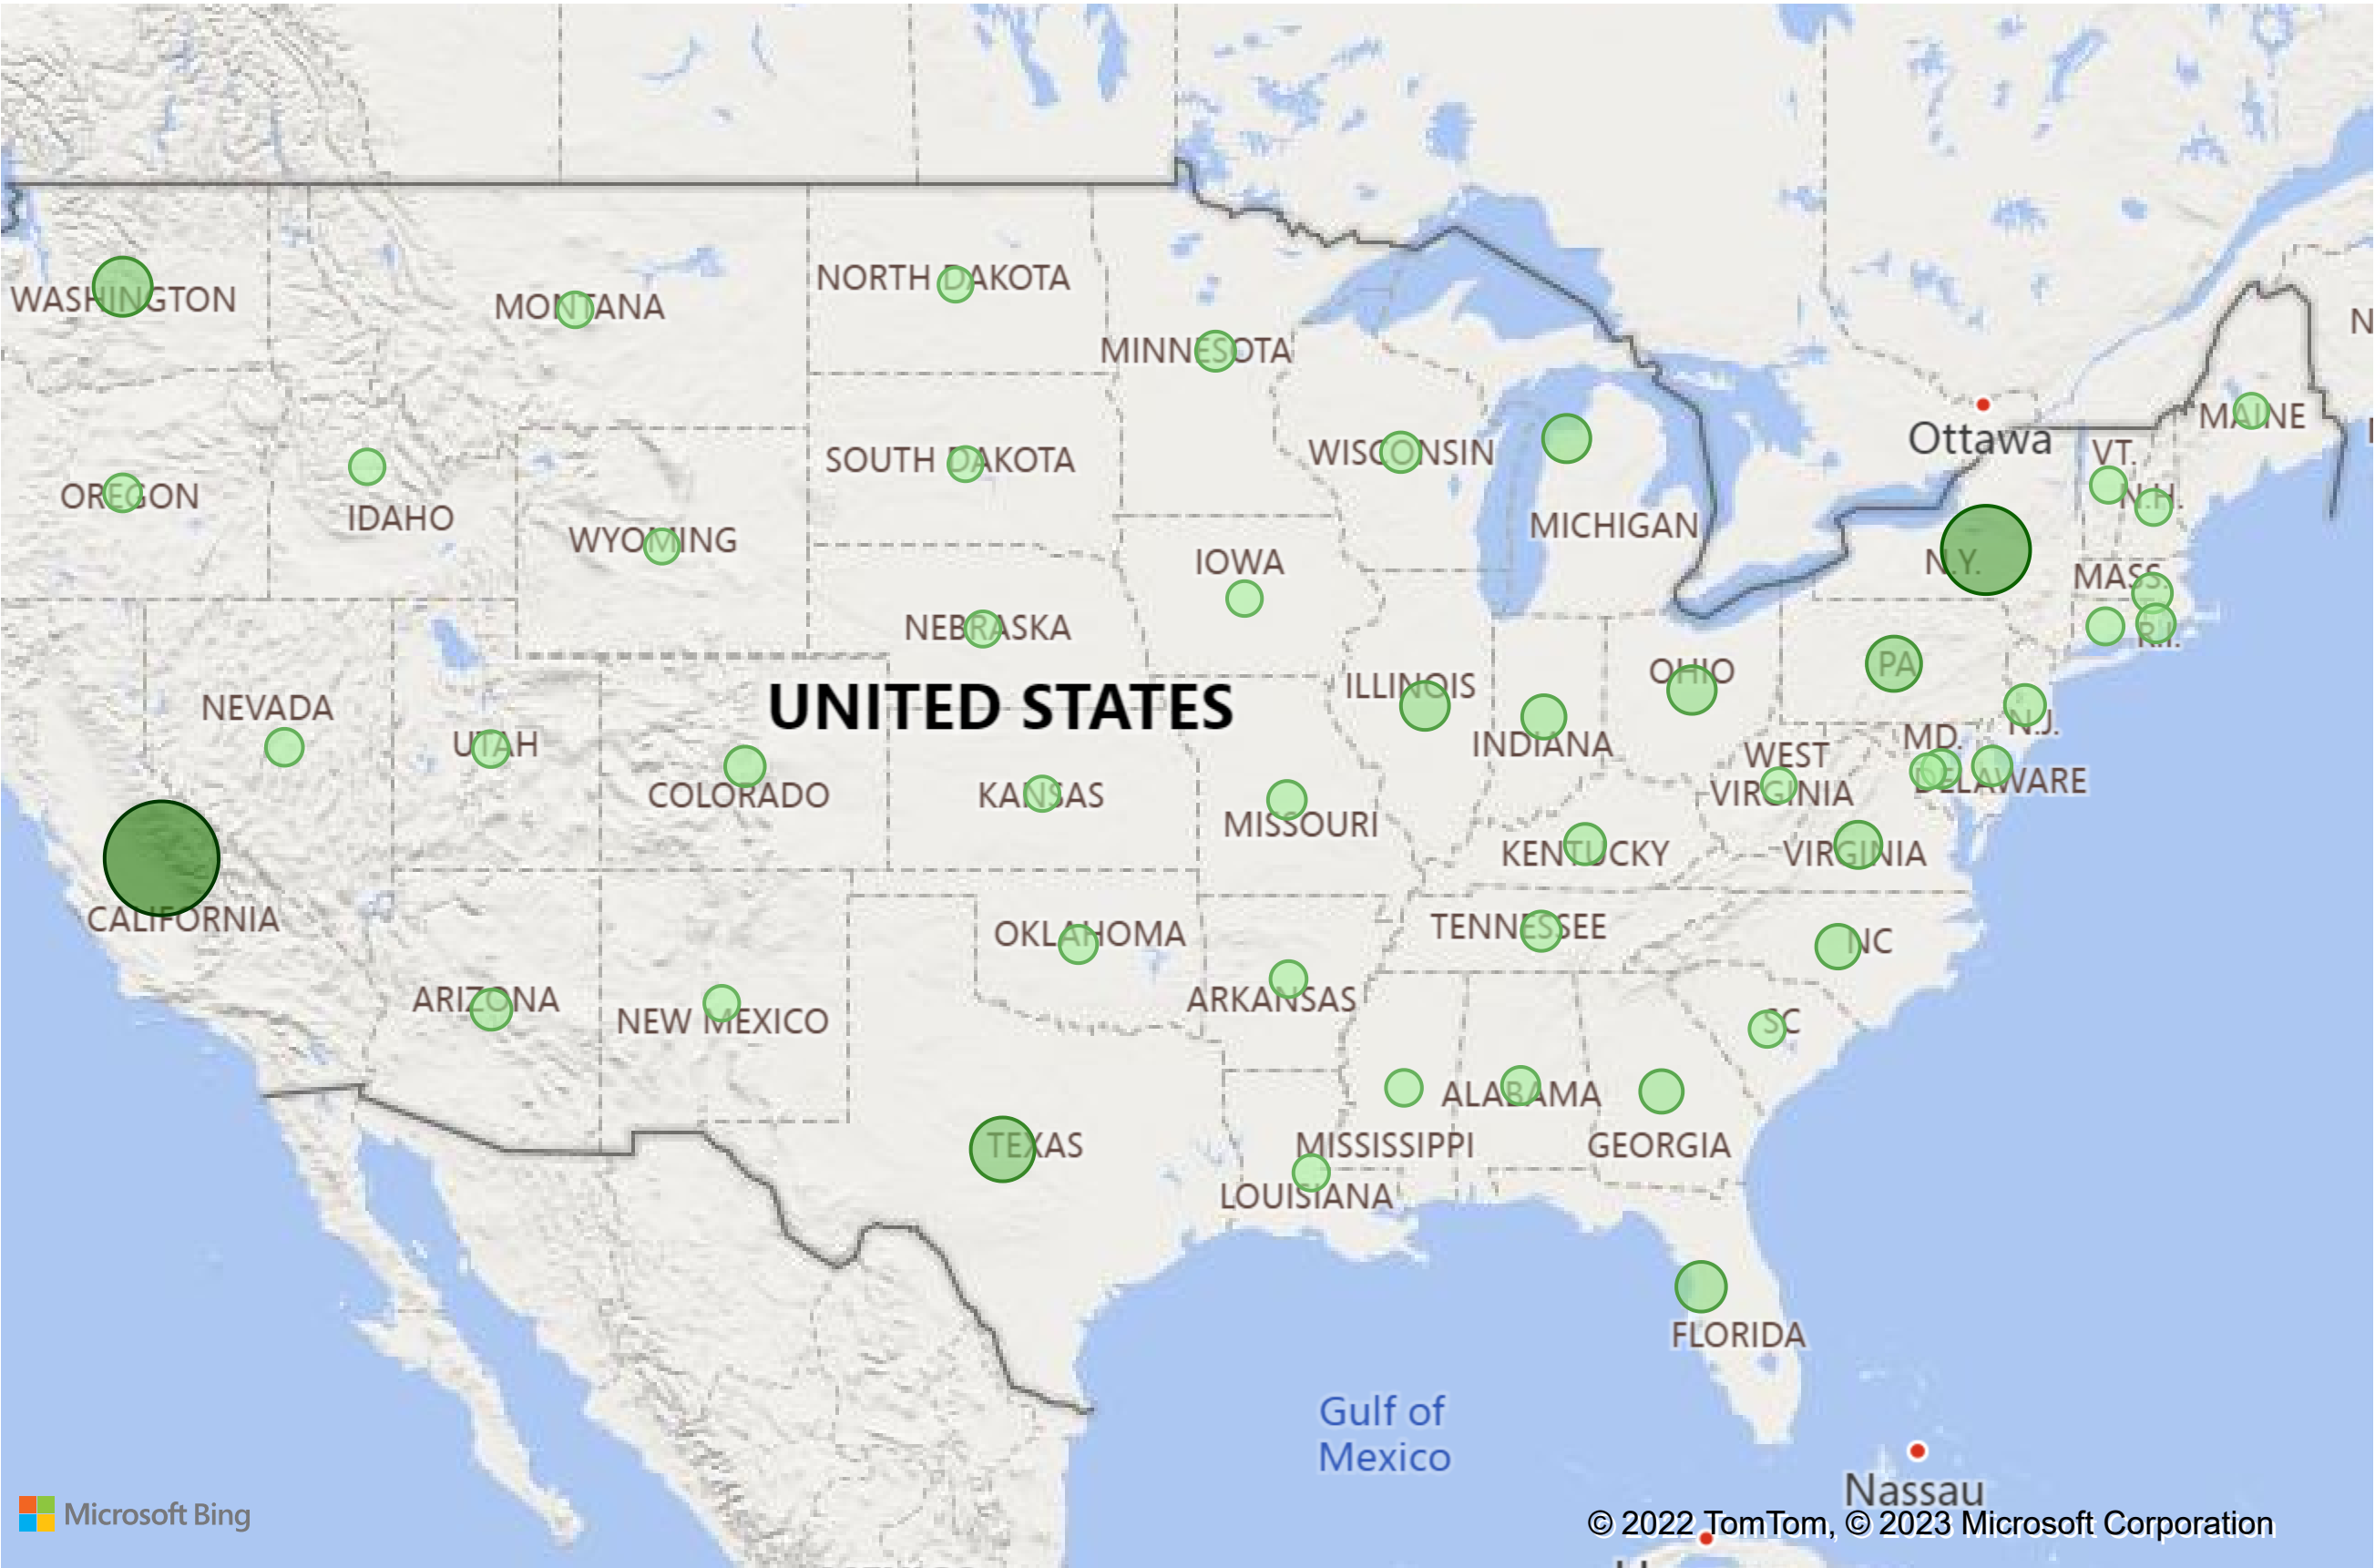

Consumers accounted for over half of the customer segment at 51 % and the customer who had the highest order sale was Sean Miller.

Standard class was mostly preferred with sales raking a whopping $1.4 M on the other hand Same Day mode had only $128 K worth of sales.

Where in the world?

The region with the lowest sales was the South at $391 K and the West had the most at $725 K.

The state of California had $458K in revenue while Maine only managed $1.3 K.